Governor Cooper Visits the Yadkin View RCC's adopted house in Lumberton

Governor Cooper paid a visit to the Yadkin View RCC's adopted house in Lumberton, NC on the one year anniversary of hurricane Florence. He visited with both volunteer groups and individuals affected by last year's hurricane. We are thankful that his visit helped to spotlight the great work being done by so many volunteers!

House Blessing Thursday, October 17, 2019 at 11:00am

Our Lumberton house is almost done! The UMC Disaster relief personnel along with all of those who volunteered or donated in some way will try to bring this chapter of our work to a close with a house blessing on October the 17th @ 11:00, which is a Thursday.

Connor Cook, Zach Dease, John Sparks, Nick Vance

Macedonia had a few folks go to Lumberton on a few occasions to help with different stages of the building of this home. The first trip our volunteers helped to lay the sub flooring, on another trip they framed and put up walls, on yet another trip they put insulation throughout the home. We thank those that went down to give of their time and talents and we thank all of those who donated money to help fund this special project. We say a special thank you to Susan Parker who not only went to Lumberton to help but who also helped to keep us updated on the progress of the home and took and gathered many pictures to put on our update board in the vestibule.
